a the display window of the ital salvage shop is an ext that for daintiness and comeness should win a prize any-
ere. The display centers around pretty doll bride and never did deal bride possess a more comte trousseau.
The little doll was dressed and all many wardrobe accessories re made by the clever hands of W. J. McCloskey, 416 Tenth ue. And Mr. McCloskey also d a hand in the making, for it s who fashioned the many y clothes hangers, racks, etc., at support the various garments.
The little doll lady is wearing complete bridal costume and nd about her are literally doz-s of tiny, beautifully made ar-les. There are evening gowns, orning dresses, sports suits, essing gowns, bathrobes, and en kitchen aprons. And each es its full complement of der garments, stockings, tiny oes made from kid gloves, and tightly trimmed hats. And neat-y arranged on a rack are rows necklaces, one for each dress.
ere are bath towels, bath mats,
nd even miniature wash cloths.
nd on a small dresser are mi-y's toilet articles, rouges, powers and tiny powder puff.

Mrs. McCloskey planned and ade this unique wardrobe for a mall niece of hers who lives in e north, but wishing to aid the salvage shop hospital fund, she as generously offered to place the ntire outfit on sale, the proceeds o go to the hospital fund. She will immediately begin work on another doll wardrobe for the iece.

An interesting fact about the exhibit is that many of the ar-icles were made from materials secured in the salvage shop.

For Respected Citizen of West End

Friends of J. B. Draper in Upland and Ontario and throughout shocked Sunday to hear of his death. Although Mr. Draper's health had not been good for the past year, or since the death of Mrs. Draper last December, he re-high esteem for his splendid, upright character. His life was an

W. C. Malone Hurt in Auto Accident on South Euclid

Riding in the back seat of an automobile, with a person on each side of him, W. C. Malone, county game warden and deputy state fish and game commissioner, received a fracture of three ribs at 8:30 o'clock last night. He received the injuries when the car in which he was a passenger "sideswiped" a parked truck and trailer on Euclid avenue south of Ontario.

He was the only one of the five persons in the car injured. As George B. Clarkson, state game and fish commissioner, the driver, suddenly applied the brakes, the car swerved in such a manner that the rear of the car lunged against the parked vehicles.

Rushed to San Antonio hospital,
Mr. Malone was examined by Dr.
A. L. Weber. Extent of the injuries was not determined until completion of X-ray examinations this morning. One rib was broken in two places and two other ribs were fractured.

PROTEST AGAINST REST HOME UNITES PROPERTY OWNERS

Heights Residents Seek to Prevent Janet Bryant in Opening Project

WATER RIGHTS BROKEN

Group Engages Attorney and Hope to Keep District
Free From Plant

Residents of San Antonio
Heights are vying against Miss Janet F. Bryant in her plans to construct a rest home, with the result today that Attorney Isaac Jones has notified Miss Bryant that water will not be supplied the establishment.

Through a grant in the property formerly held by the Frankish family, the water company serving that district can discontinue water service on a 90-day notice.
Miss Bryant said today that she would continue plans for making a rest home, as her attorney has advised that she cannot be deterred in her project.

Nearly a month ago owners of property in the heights were told by the board of supervisors that Miss Bryant could not be stopped in her plans as operation of the proposed rest home would come within the county ordinances.

After this appearance before the board, the protesters looked into the water question and the notice from Mr. Jones was the result.

LIBERTY GROVES EVENT DREW MANY

"Open House" at New Offices of Concern Attended by Several Hundred

The "open house" in celebration of the completion of the new offices of Liberty Groves Operating Corp. on east Highland avenue yesterday afternoon and evening was successful beyond the expectations of the president and general manager, T. R. Woodbridge, and he and his associates naturally feel very gratified by the interest the members of the organization and general public showed in this unique and successful enterprise.

Between 300 and 400 people visited the new offices and expressed approval and delight in the complete and modern building and equipment. Also expressing the good wishes of many friends were the numerous and beautiful flowers that banked the walls of the office. Visitors were served light refreshments in the form of cider, doughnuts, cookies and cheese—
and the fact that about thirty gallons of cider was served is further evidence of a large number of visitors.

Upland people join in the pride
Mr. Woodbridge and the Liberty Groves Operating Corp. feel in the success they have attained in their enterprise, which consists of taking over the complete operating of citrus groves of the members or doing any part of the work desired, the first organization of its kind and the most successful.

This early hour is selected in or-

Let's Be Thankful

One of the beautiful and appropriate customs of the American people is the annual observance of Thanksgiving day. There is never a year that Americans do not have many things for which to be thankful and we always have reason to feel we are a favored people—that Providence has been good to us in comparison with other countries and nations.

Thanksgiving day is given over to feasting and the reunion of families and friends. It is a family day and wherever possible the family circle is complete. Father, mother and all the children gather at the old home and reminiscing is a part of the day's program. The minds of those of us who are fathers and mothers wander back to the days when we were children in the old home. We can see mother preparing the big Thanksgiving dinner, we again smell the fragrance of the steaming turkey or chicken and all the trimmings that go with them to make a real feast. It's a happy day for mother, for she delights in the quality of her cooking and the preparation of a big meal on Thanksgiving day is a delight to her. As we lingered around the kitchen waiting for a chance to "lick the pan" our appetites could hardly stand it until "dinner was ready." Many of our fathers and mothers of those days have passed on and we with families today live over again on Thanksgiving day the same scenes as we see our children experiencing the same emotions with the same big appetite.

It seems there are no people on earth who have more for which to be thankful than we who live in Southern California. Conditions are generally prosperous and as a place in which to live it is not surpassed by any spot in all the world. The balmy winter climate and the wonderful surroundings the God of nature has given us are things many sections of the world do not enjoy, hence we feel we are living in the most favored spot of the most favored nation.

Then on Thanksgiving day let us reverently give thanks to Almighty God for all the many things he is permitting us to enjoy.

San Antonio Chapter

D. A. R. Meets Monday—

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Jacob Jesson, 320 West Emporia, Ontario, San Antonio chapter, D. A. R., held a very interesting meeting Monday afternoon, co-hostesses with Mrs. Jesson being Mrs. E. A. Bost, Mrs. C. W. Walker, Mrs. L. W. Cushman and Miss Anna Hamilton.

With Mrs. Thomas R. Cummins as program chairman, a delightful program was presented, the topic being "Colonial Silverware, Pewter and Glass." Mrs. Cummins aroused interest in the subject by her clever introduction and throughout the hour allotted there was not one dull moment.

Mrs. Cushman read a most enlightening paper on silverware and a number of rare antique heirlooms, some dating back into the sixteenth century, were shown. Several of the members had brought their treasures and they were inspected with great interest. Mrs. Cushman told of the very old spoons which were originally made with the handle extending like a stem into the bowl of the spoon, and also described the original one-tine fork.

Of equal interest was Mrs. George Harding's talk on ancient pewter and the exhibit of some valuable pewter antiques. Mrs. Cummins closed the discussion with an interesting description of old glassware, exhibiting some very rare old glass pieces.

A special feature of the meeting was the reception of three new members, who represent three generations in one family. This is a record unique in itself and there is doubt that it has ever been equaled in California. The new members are Mrs. L. R. Nichols; her mother, Mrs. J. H. McGeehe; and her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Hamilton, and the chapter regent, Mrs. R. F. Lemon, expressed deep gratification in having the pleasure of welcoming the new members.

Concluding the meeting, tea was served. Mrs. Lemon and Mrs. Cushman pouring. The tea table was charmingly appointed and choice chrysanthemums were used in the house decorations.

Members of Coterie Club

Guests of Mrs. Flowers—

A merry meeting of the Coterie club was held Friday afternoon. Mrs. Harry W. Flowers being hostess at her home, 592 Euclid avenue. Lovely chrysanthemums were used in the house decorations.

Bridge playing provided a pleasant diversion for the afternoon, the first prize being won by Mrs. Perry O. Long and Mrs. Bell Wisely winning low prize.

Concluding the pleasant afternoon Mrs. Flowers served tempting refreshments to her guests, who were Mesdames H. O. Blohm, Eva Alford, G. A. Brest, C. C. Eymann, Perry O. Long, C. A. Bauerlein, Bell Wisely, T. M. Nichols, George Gregg, all members, and three special guests, Mrs. Moses, Mrs. J. F. Sawyer and Mrs. D. J. Burlingame.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. T. M. Nichols.

Yellis-Haldeman Wedding Occurs Saturday Evening—

Exchanging their marital vows before a large gathering of their friends, Miss Marian Yellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Yellis, formerly of Uppland but now residing in Anaheim, and Abner B. Haldeman, who came here from Kansas more than a year ago, were married at 8 o'clock Saturday night, the wedding taking place in the Brethren of Christ church, and the officiating minister being the Rev. H. G. Brubaker. The wedding arrangements were planned without ostentation, yet were very pretty and most impressive in the solemnity of the service.

The church was attractively decorated with palms and ferns and tall baskets of beautiful yellow chrysanthemums.

While the guests, who were greeted by Earl Wenger, gathered in the church, filling it to capacity, Miss Helen Gish played a group of old-time favorites, such as "Annie Laurie" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Cecil Eshelman then sang "Because," accompanied by Miss Gish, who followed with the Wedding March from Lohengrin, heralding the entrance of the bridal party.

First came the minister down one aisle of the church, followed by John Buckwalter ushering the groom and his best man, Elam Dohner. With Abel Haldeman preceding as usher, the bride and her attendants came down the other aisle. Dortha Dohner as bridesmaid was attractive in a handsome dress of yellow rayon flat crepe and carried a shower bouquet of lavender sweet peas. She was followed by two dainty flower girls, little Ruth Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Franklin, and Louise Gish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gish. The little girls wore pretty white frocks and carried baskets of pink and yellow flower petals, with large yellow bows on the baskets.

Following the flower girls the bride, a pretty blond, entered, escorted by her father. She was lovely in a becoming gown of flat crepe in egg shell shade and wore a dainty veil of bridal illusion net caught about her head with orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was white roses and white sweet peas with maiden hair fern.

Meeting at the altar, the bride and groom became husband and wife, the service being read by the Rev. Mr. Brubaker. As Miss Gish played Mendelssohn's Recessional, the wedding party left the church. As the bride passed down the aisle she threw a rose from her bouquet and it was caught by Miss Anna Brandt.

A reception for the bridal party and relatives, numbering about 40, was held in the home the groom had prepared for his bride at 356 F street. The home was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and a large white wedding bell bearing a miniature bride and groom.

A beautiful wedding cake was cut by the bride and a wedding collation was served, the ice cream being yellow and white.

The bride is a graduate of Beulah college and is popular with a large circle of friends in Uppland. Mr. Haldeman also attended Beulah college last year and he is now employed by the Shattuck Lumber Co. He also has many friends here who will join those of the bride in wishing them happiness.

Miss Hazel Rider's Engagement Announced—

With the clubhouse of the Uppland Woman's club as the attractive setting for the affair, Mrs. Wilbur Rider was hostess on Saturday afternoon at a prettily appointed bridge party commemorating her daughter, Miss Hazel Rider and affording an opportunity for the announcement of Miss Rider's engagement to Cecil E. Pratt of Ontario, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Pratt.

The club rooms were handsomely decorated with baskets of beautiful chrysanthemums in the rich fall colors, and this color-tone was cleverly incorporated in all the appointments and the refreshments.

Several tables were arranged for bridge and it was when the guests received the dainty tally cards that the real purpose of calling them together was revealed by the tiny bluebird on the tallies. Simultaneously a messenger arrived with a lovely engagement ring concealed in a corsage. The date for the wedding was announced as Wednesday, Dec. 18. Miss Rider was immediately the center of attention and was showered with good wishes by her friends.

When composure was restored the guests devoted the afternoon to the bridge games, the score prize winners being Mrs. Faye Gribble of Long Beach, first; Miss Florence Dutcher of Montebello, second, and Miss Lillian Widmer of Uppland, consolation.

Mrs. Rider served delicious refreshments, being assisted by Mrs. L. R. Bradley and Mrs. John Jacobs.

The guests of Mrs. Rider, many of whom were from Los Angeles, Montebello, where Miss Rider is teaching, and other places, were Misses Marion Green, Frances Smith, Edna Hildebrand, Florence Dutcher, Grace Cooper, Dorine Doty, Mamie Fritz, Blanche Knowlton, Mable Cooper, Virginia Craig, Imogene Leet, Dorothy Rule; Mesdames Faye Gribble, J. Lee McClintock, Harry B. Way, J. Lee Davidson, Ruth Stevenson, Betty Oliver, Carol Collins, and from Uppland, Miss Lillian Widmer, Miss Gertrude Eymann, Mrs. L. R. Bradley, Mrs. Blanche Loch, Mrs. Floyd Atwood, Mrs. W. B. Cavers and Mrs. John J. Jacobs.

Junior High Faculty

Enjoys Merry Party—

Members of the faculty of the Uppland junior high school enjoyed a merry party Thursday night at the home of the principal of the school, Harold W. Cook and Mrs. Cook, 219 West H street, Ontario.

A pot-luck supper opened the festivities of the evening and was followed by a general good time, story telling, playing jolly games and chatting.

Attending the pleasant affair were W. C. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brubaker, Miss Elizabeth Griggs, Miss Mary Louise Jones, Miss Corrine Kelly, Miss Cleone Lukehart, Miss Rosamond Martin, Miss Fannie D. Noe, Miss Nellie Randall, Miss Anna L. Rohrig, Miss Vivian Soder, Miss Gertrude Wilcox, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Cook.

Young Minister Marries

Oregon Girl Sunday—

The Rev. Paul Hershey, son of the Rev. and Mrs. N. E. Hershey of Chino, and nephew of Miss Fannie Hershey of Uppland, was married Sunday afternoon at 2:30 to Miss Emma Klempel of Salem, Ore., the wedding occurring at the home of the groom's uncle in San Mareno. The young people were formerly classmates in Gooding college in Idaho.

The Rev. Mr. Hershey came to Uppland from Oregon with his parents several months ago, and two months ago he took charge of a pastorate in Hayden, Ariz., where he and his bride will make their home.

HOME OWNING on a Small Salary

IT MAY surprise you to know that fully half of the homes in this country are owned by men who make less than $2000 a year.

How do they do it? Through loans such as those made by this association. These loans are put upon a monthly repayment basis about like rent. Both interest and principal are included; one mortgage stays in force, eliminating costly renewals; never any large sum to meet. This is the one plan that helps you to get out of debt, easily, and over a period of years, it is distinctly cheaper.

We loan money to build or buy a great many homes which never WOULD and never COULD have been owned in any other way.

You can do it, too, if you are now paying rent regularly. Come in and let us tell you how.

STARS, MASONS HAD GOOD TIME

Dinner and Informal Party on Friday Night Attended by About 150 Members

There were 150 or more members of the Eastern Star and Masonic lodges present at the dinner tendered the Stars by the Masons at The Sycamores Friday evening. The excellent trout dinner was something different in the line of eats, some of the Masons having caught enough fish to "feed the multitude."

Walter Horak, master of the Masonic order, presided at the affair, which was decidedly informal, and did much to keep the crowd in a happy mood. After introducing various parties responsible for the success of the evening, Mr. Horak called on Dr. Bert Foster and Attorney Edward Gray for some remarks—and their talks were very much enjoyed. Dr. Foster dwelt mostly upon the serious topics, while Mr. Gray gave a humorous "problem" that was hard to solve.

Following this part of the program the remainder was spent in dancing, playing cards and visiting as each desired. It was the first occasion in several years where the Masons have entertained their "sisters" of the Star, but all hope for a similar occasion soon.

ROTARY TRIBUTE TO J. B. DRAPER

Members Stand in Silent Remembrance to Loved Man
—Filipino Is Speaker

Without any previous plans the meeting of the Upland Rotary club at noon today seemed naturally to turn into a memorial for that wonderful character, J. B. Draper of Ontario, who as an undertaker and one who ministered to the people as a friend endeared himself to as large a circle of friends as anyone of the Ontario and Upland community. The club stood in a moment of silent prayer and tribute in his honor. Dr. Stone spoke feelingly of the soothing and quieting influence the deceased had in the homes he visited in their time of greatest sorrow, and John Shepperson also rose and told of the pleasant manner he was made to feel at home upon his first visit to the Ontario club when he came to this community about four years ago by the remarks of Mr. Draper. The club voted to send resolutions of condolence to the bereaved family and to the Ontario club.

The program today was in charge of Owen Atwood, who introduced three Filipino boys living in Upland—Blas Maza, Ane Salomon and Juan Maza. The latter gave the talk for the day, making a comparison of conditions in the Philippines under Spanish rule and during the 29 years Uncle Sam has exercised control. Under former conditions only one in 70 could read or write Spanish, whereas now 95 out of every 100 can write and speak English. Roads and bridges have been built, fields have been irrigated and cities improved in every way.

Miss Anna M. Seager, 325 East Eighth street, was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends who came in Thursday afternoon to celebrate her birthday and to wish her many happy returns of the day.

The guests were entertained by her sister, Mrs. J. W. Chadwick, assisted by Mrs. J. W. McDonald and Mrs. George Barlowe. Mrs. E. M. Davidson and Mrs. A. P. Marshall delighted the guests by reciting a beautiful poem which they learned when they were small girls in school.

Delicious refreshments which included a birthday cake prettily decorated with pink candles, were served by the hostesses.

Those calling on Miss Seager were Mesdames E. M. Davidson, A. P. Marshall, Mary Gentry, Emily Bates, all of Ontario; M. H. Bordwell, Mary Frazee, N. L. Hoffman, J. W. McDonald, George Barlowe and Misses A. I. Craig, S. L. Love, Flora Morley and Lucile McDonald.

Men's Brotherhood
Holds Meeting in Mennonite Church

The quarterly meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Mennonite church was held Friday evening at the church and included a dinner at 6:30, an election of officers and a program.

The dinner table was very prettily decorated, the Thanksgiving motif being used, and the excellent menu was served by the S. O. circle to 68 members of the Brotherhood, the president, Paul F. Schowalter, presiding.

The dinner was followed by a business session, during which officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mr. Schowalter was re-elected president, Tresler Boshart was named vice-president, Wallace Hiebert, secretary-treasurer, reelection, and the Rev. A. J. Neuen-schwander, choirster. Four captains, each to have charge of one of the quarterly programs during the year, were named, they being Lyle Schrock, John Horsch, Henry Schmutz and Marlin Dettweiler.

President Schowalter then turned the meeting over to John Licht, program chairman, who presented the speaker, E. B. DeGroot, Scout executive of Los Angeles, who delivered a splendid address on "The Problems of Boyhood and Scouting," telling especially of the benefits of Boy Scout work and giving a brief history of the organization. The Baer brothers furnished the musical part of the program, singing several numbers, and the pastor of the church, the Rev. A. J. Neuen-schwander, made a short talk.

The force at the First National bank is "badly shot" and diminished by four on account of illness. Harlow Wilson, cashier, is at home suffering from an infection, but expects to be back at his post in a few days. Allan Barr, assistant cashier, returned home from the Stanford-California football game with the flu. Miss Lillian Roth, stenographer, is confined to her home, as is also Mrs. Addie Littlejohn, one of the bookkeepers.

them in their home at Pacific Palisades, suggested that they come up to stay with her in Upland, where he has many friends.

Dr. Welch is happy to be back in Upland, saying it seems like home to him. He is able to see only a limited number of his friends.

THRIFT...

A bank can render no more useful service to its community than to encourage and safeguard thrift. For this reason, the Bank of America extends a sincere welcome to the most modest saver. To the school child, forming the habits that will shape its lifetime. To the young man or woman, planning for education. To the young couple with their eyes on the future. To all who are building for progress, the facilities of this bank are cordially extended.

California's largest state bank is eager to do its part in the building of future citizenship. To this service it brings three score years of banking experience.

We are very proud that on the books of the Bank of America are the names of pioneer men and women who, with their own hands, cleared their lands and built their homes. On the staunch thrift and sterling character of these men and women, the prosperity of California is founded.
